

Security Consulting and Resources Support

EVOLUTION of EXCELLENCE

Linxx Global Solutions

Linxx Global Solutions, Inc. (Linxx) is a service-disabled veteran-owned business with offices across the United States. Our growing national and international business operations are managed from our corporate headquarters in Virginia Beach, Virginia. Over the last 16 years, Linxx has offered a wide range of educational, training, professional, and program management services around the world. We support all branches of the Department of Defense (DoD); the intelligence community; U.S. Department of Homeland Security; and other federal, state, and local agencies.

Security Services Support

Linxx provides comprehensive consulting, assessment, training, and direct security services support for the DoD, all federal agencies, and large U.S. corporations. We have extensive past performance successfully delivering security services to include: provider of the U.S. Navy's counter-piracy training since 2006, ITAR sensitive inventory control in support of U.S. Army GWOT aviation initiatives, security assessment support for the 2004 Athens Olympics, maritime force protection security services for BAE Systems, and several significant commercial client contracts worldwide. Linxx employs a comprehensive client requirements process approach that allows us to quickly target key challenges. Our offerings can be holistic and purchased turn-key or selected as needed.

Security Consulting

Whether you are planning to establish a security program or have already deployed security assets, Linxx can assist you by providing exceptional security consultation services. We are experienced and understand how to work with clients discreetly to properly evaluate and improve security operations. Linxx can deliver short, medium, or long term consulting support as required or as determined by the circumstances being addressed. Our approach begins with a thorough interview and discovery phase where we ascertain the key issues and concerns of our client. Based on the evaluation, Linxx can assist by deploying a wide range of consulting, training, and resource solutions. Below are a few areas of focus:

- Security posture assessment
- Security threat and risk analysis
- Risk mitigation planning
- Security plan review
- Sustained security consultation
- Specialized planning (e.g., ITAR, DOD, DHS, etc.)
- Security systems install/upgrade project management

Security Resources

Linxx has superior past performance delivering professional security leadership and guard force staffing in the United States and around the world. We can provide turn-key services which include deployment of human resource security solutions and fully equipping and arming deployed personnel as required. Linxx personnel are held to a high standard in deportment and presentation. We believe our success in reducing risk (e.g., theft, work place violence, etc.) across all of our contracts is derived from the quality of leaders and guard personnel we hire. Linxx was founded by and is managed by former U.S. Special Operations professionals. We understand and are knowledgeable in a full range of threat mitigation, from non-lethal use of force up to approved federal, state, and local armed procedures. We can create, deploy, and manage special security teams for maritime escort, executive protection, harbor and coastal patrol, and client incident command team augmentation. Below are a few of our capabilities:

- Security leadership staffing
- Guard post and guard force staffing
- Special security teams (e.g., executive protection, harbor patrol, etc.)
- Special inventory control teams
- Security equipment, materials, and communications

Summary

Linxx is a well-run, lean company with an excellent past performance record. The value we deliver to our customers can be summed up in one word: commitment. We are dedicated to improving the security of America and her allies through insightful analysis, creative product development, and exceptional customer service. To that end, we employ a large number of former service men and women who leverage their considerable experience and knowledge to accurately address the challenges facing our U.S. Government and corporate customers. In addition to these talented veterans, Linxx employs intelligent, business-minded professionals who understand program management, risk mitigation, and quality assurance. Our service offerings are divided into three categories: Security and Training Services, Professional Services, and Technical Services.
